RULES
of Admission to Educational Programs of Higher Education (Research Pedagogical Staff Training Programs) at PhD Courses of Astrakhan State University in 2018

I. General Clauses

1. These Rules of Admission to Educational Programs of Higher Education (Research Pedagogical Staff Training Programs) at PhD Courses (hereinafter referred to as the “Rules”) regulate admission of citizens of the Russian Federation, foreign citizens, and people without a citizenship (hereinafter referred to as “entrants”) to study at Astrakhan State University by covering educational programs of higher education – programs aimed to train research pedagogical staff at PhD courses (hereinafter referred to as the “PhD programs”); they determine the list of entrance examinations during the admission process, as well as peculiarities of arranging entrance examinations for people with special health needs.

2. The University declares admission to cover PhD programs, provided it has a license to perform educational activities in the corresponding educational PhD programs.

3. These Rules are determined within the part, which is not regulated by the legislation of education, by the University itself. The Rules of Admission are approved by the Academic Council of the University.

4. It is only entrants with a complete higher education with a master or a specialist degree who are eligible for admission to PhD programs.

An entrant shall present his or her document confirming obtainment of education of the corresponding level (hereinafter referred to as “the document of official standard”):

a document of education and qualification of the standard determined by the federal executive authority that performs functions to develop the state policy and legal regulation in the field of education, or by the federal executive authority that performs functions to develop the state policy and legal regulation in the field of healthcare, or by the federal executive authority that performs functions to develop the state policy and legal regulation in the field of culture;

a document of official standard that confirms the level of education and qualification, provided it was obtained prior to January 01, 2014;

a document of education and qualification of the standard determined by the Federal State Budgetary Educational Institution of Higher Professional Education “Lomonosov Moscow State University” (hereinafter referred to as “Lomonosov Moscow State University”) and by the Federal State Budgetary Educational Institution of Higher Professional Education “Saint Petersburg State University” (hereinafter referred to as “Saint Petersburg State University”), or a document of education and qualification of the standard determined upon the decision of an administration collegial body of an educational institution, provided that document has been issued to a person who passed the state final accreditation successfully;

a document of education or education or qualification issued by a private organization that performs educational activities in the Skolkovo Innovative Center;

a document (documents) of education or education and qualification issued in a foreign country, provided education certified by that document is acknowledged in the Russian Federation as corresponding to the proper level of education (hereinafter referred to as a “foreign document of education”).

5. Admission of entrants shall be executed to the first year of studies.

6. Admission to cover educational programs is executed within the control figures of admitting citizens at the expense of budget fundings of the federal budget (hereinafter referred to as the “control figures”, “budget fundings”) and on paid terms at the expense of individuals and/or legal entities on the base of contracts of education (hereinafter referred to as “contracts of education”).

7. ASU shall admit entrants to studies on the following terms (hereinafter referred to as the “admission terms”) by arranging a separate entrance competition in each set of those admission terms:

within the University in general, including its Branch;

separately for the full-time and distance forms of studies;

separately for particular PhD programs depending on their profiles: to each PhD program within its more general specialty;

bachelor, specialist, and master programs depending on their profiles as per the regulations specified in Clause 11 of these Rules;

separately within the control figures and as per contracts of education.

8. To be admitted to studies, an entrant shall submit an application of admission, enclosing the necessary documents (hereinafter referred to as the “documents necessary for admission”).

An entrant may delegate his or her authorized representative authorities to perform actions on behalf of that entrant as per these Rules, provided those actions do not require that entrant’s personal presence (present the documents necessary for admission to ASU, withdraw those documents, etc.). The authorized representative shall present a warrant issued by that entrant and prepared as per the official legal standard; that warrant must specify the corresponding authorities delegated to the authorized representative.

If an entrant or their authorized representative visits ASU and/or interacts with officials of ASU personally, they shall present the original of their personality identification document.

9. Organizational support of admission to studies, including studies at the Branch, shall be executed by the Admission Commission that is established by ASU. Rector of ASU is the Chairperson of the Admission Commission. The Chairperson of the Admission Commission appoints the Executive Secretary of the Admission Commission, who coordinates activities to be performed by the Admission Commission and who receives entrants and their legal or authorized representatives personally.

To arrange entrance examinations, ASU shall establish examination and appellation commissions as per the procedure that it shall determine itself.

Authorities and the procedure of activities to be performed by the Admission Commission shall be determined by its Statute to be approved by the Rector.

Authorities and the procedure of activities performed by examination and appellation commissions shall be determined by the corresponding Statutes to be approved by the Chairperson of the Admission Commission.

26. The University shall return the submitted documents necessary for admission to an entrant, provided he/she submitted them violating these Rules (except for the case when that violation does not relate to all the terms of admission indicated in his/her admission application).

27. The University shall have the right to verify credibility of information indicated in entrants' admission application, as well as authenticity of the submitted documents. Verifying that information and those documents, the University shall have the right to contact the appropriate state information systems, state (municipal) legal authorities and institutions.

28. An entrant shall have the right to withdraw their documents necessary for admission at any stage of the admission process by submitting their application of withdrawal of those documents by any means indicated in Clause 16 of these Rules. Entrants who have withdrawn their documents shall be expelled from the entrance competition process. The University shall return their documents to them.

IV. Entrance Examinations

29. The University determines the list of entrance examinations, as well as the language in which those examinations shall be held, the assessment scale, and the minimal scores confirming an entrant's successful passing of an entrance examination (hereinafter referred to as the "minimal scores") (for each entrance examination) itself.

30. Programs of entrance examinations for PhD programs shall be formed on the base of federal state educational standards of higher education related to master or specialist programs.

31. Entrance examinations shall be taken in an oral form (as an interview for an entrant to respond to questions whose list shall be made available for any entrant by publishing it on the official web site www.asu.edu.ru) (programs of entrance examinations). To prepared their examination responses, entrants shall use their interview sheets that shall be stored in their personal files for at least one year.

The level of an entrant's knowledge shall be assessed by the examination commission by applying the five-grade scale. Each entrance examination shall be assessed separately.

The results of an entrance examination shall be finalized with a protocol that lists questions that examiners have asked their examinees. An individual protocol shall be made for each entrant. Protocols of entrance examinations, upon their official approval by the Chairperson of the Admission Commission, shall stored in entrants' personal files for at least one year.

32. In case of admission to the same educational program, the list of entrance examinations, the assessment scale, and the minimal scores must not be different while admitting to different forms of studies, as well as while admitting within the control figures and on paid term upon signing a contract of education.

33. The minimal scores must not be changed during the admission process.

34. One entrance examination shall be held either for all the entrants simultaneously, or within different temporal terms for different groups of entrants (also in case of a gradual formation of those groups of entrants who have submitted their documents necessary for admission).

For each group of entrants, only one entrance examination shall be arranged per day.

35. An entrant shall take each entrance examination only once.

36. Entrants who have not come to take an entrance examination for a valid reason (their disease or another circumstance that is confirmed with an official document) shall take that examination in another group of entrants or on a reserve day (provided there is such an opportunity as per the schedule of entrance examinations).

37. During their entrance examinations, entrants and individuals involved in the examination procedure are prohibited to have and use any communication devices. The participants of the entrance examinations may have and use reference materials and electronic calculation devices whose application during the entrance examination procedure is allowed by the Rules of Admission.

38. If an entrant violates the Rules of Admission during the procedure of an entrance examination, the authorized officials of the University shall be entitled to remove that entrant from the examination site; they shall compose an act of removal.

39. The decision made by an examination commission shall be published on the official web site www.asu.edu.ru and on the information board not later than three days after the entrance examination has been held.

40. Entrants who have received a score inferior to the minimal scores at any entrance examination, who have not taken any entrance examination without a valid reason (including those removed for the examination site) shall be expelled from the entrance competition process. The University shall return their documents to them.

41. While returning the submitted documents via general mail operators (in cases stipulated by Clauses 26, 28, 40, and 66 of these Rules), only the originals of those documents shall be returned to an entrant.

V. Peculiarities of Taking Entrance Examinations by Entrants with Special Health Needs

42. The University shall provide the appropriate procedure of entrance examinations for entrants with special health needs, considering with peculiarities of their physical and psychic development, as well as with their individual capabilities and the state of their health (hereinafter referred to as “individual peculiarities”).

43. The University has the appropriate material and technical conditions that provide free access to lecture halls, toilet rooms, and other premises for entrants with special health needs, as well as their comfortable stay in those premises.

44. Entrance examinations for entrants with special health needs shall be held in a separate room upon their personal applications.

The number of entrants with special health needs must not exceed six people per examination room in case the entrance examination is held orally.

It is acceptable that a larger number of entrants with special health needs is present in an examination room, as well as that entrants with special health needs take entrance examinations together with other entrants, provided that does not create any difficulties for entrants during their entrance examinations.

It is acceptable that an assistant (a staff member of ASU or another person involved in helping entrants with special health needs), who provides entrants with special health needs with the necessary technical assistance, considering with their individual peculiarities (to be seated, to move, to read and prepare an examination response, to talk with examiners) is present in an examination room.

45. The duration of an entrance examination for entrants with special health needs shall be increased upon a decision of the University, but not more than by 1.5 hours.

46. Entrants with special health needs shall be given an instruction concerning the procedure of taking an entrance examination in a form that is comprehensible for them.

47. Entrants with special health needs may use technical devices, which are necessary for them owing to their individual peculiarities, during their entrance examinations.

48. During an entrance examination, the University shall comply with the following additional requirements, depending on individual peculiarities of entrants with special health needs:

1) for the blind:

assignments to be completed at an entrance examination shall be read by an assistant;

written assignments shall be dictated to an assistant;

2) for the vision impaired:

individual even lighting at least 300 lx shall be provided;

49. The conditions specified in Clauses 43 0 48 of these Rules shall be provided for entrants upon their admission application that shall indicate the necessity to provide them with the appropriate special conditions.

VI. General Rules of Appeals Submission & Examination

50. An entrant (their authorized person) shall be entitled to submit an appeal to the appellation commission; that appeal may concern a violation of the procedure of an entrance examination (which, in their opinion, has occurred) and/or their disagreement with the obtained grades for an entrance examination.

51. An appeal shall be submitted by one of the means indicated in Clause 16 of these Rules.

52. While a submitted appeal is being examined, compliance with the procedure of an entrance examination and/or adequacy of assessing the scores gained at an entrance examination shall be considered.

53. An appeal shall be submitted the day when the results of an entrance examination are declared or within the next office day. An appeal related to a procedural violation at an entrance examination may also be submitted the day when that entrance examination was held.

54. An appeal shall be examined not later than the next office day after it has been submitted.

55. An entrant (or their authorized representative) shall be entitled to be present at the examination of their appeal.

56. Upon its examination of an appeal, the appellation commission shall make a decision whether to change the obtained score for an entrance examination or to leave that score unchanged.

The decision of an appellation commission shall be formalized in a special protocol; the entrant or their authorized representative shall be informed of that decision. The fact of informing the entrant (or their authorized representative) of a decision of the appellation commission shall be testified with the entrant's personal signature (or with their authorized representative's signature).

VII. Consideration of Entrants' Individual Achievements during Admission Procedure

57. Entrants shall have the right to submit information related to their individual achievements, whose results shall be considered during the admission procedure. Their individual achievements shall be considered by adding scores for them and/or by regarding as an additional advantage, should the criteria to rank lists of entrants be equal.

Scores added for individual achievements shall be included in the sum of total scores.

An entrant shall present their documents confirming their individual achievements. Those documents shall be accepted provided they certify individual achievements that have taken place over the last two years.

58. List of individual achievements to be considered:

2	Publications in reviewed scientific editions, in which the main research findings of a PhD thesis must be published (the list of VAK (the Higher Attestation Commission) corresponding to an entrant's specialization; Publications in foreign editions corresponding to an entrant's specialization	Title page of that edition and the first page of their research article corresponding to an entrant's specialization	1 for each publication

VIII. Formation of Lists of Entrants & Enrolment to Studies

59. Based on the results of entrance examinations, the University shall form a separate list of entrants in each entrance competition. That list shall not include entrance whose scores in one or several entrance examinations are inferior to the minimal scores.

60. A list of entrants to be enrolled shall be ranked as follows:

in a decreasing order of the sum of gained competition scores;

should the sum of competition scores be equal – in a decreasing order of the sum of competition scores gained at entrance examinations and/or in a decreasing order of scores gained at particular entrance examinations, as per the degree of priority of entrance examinations determined by the University;

The sum of competition scores shall be calculated as a sum of scores for each entrance examination, as well as for individual achievements.

61. The lists of entrants to be enrolled shall indicate the following data related to each entrant:

the sum of his/her entrance competition scores;

the sum of his/her scores for each entrance examination;

the sun of his/her scores for his/her individual achievements;

whether the Admission Commission has received the original of his/her document of official standard (his/her consent for enrolment) (submitted as per Clause 63 of these Rules).

62. Lists of entrants shall be published on the official web site www.asu.edu.ru and on the information board; they shall be updated on a daily basis (not later than the beginning of an office day) prior to publication of the appropriate enrolment orders.

63. The University shall determine the deadline to receive the document of official standard; not later than that day, entrants shall submit:

for enrolment to positions within the control figures – the original of their document of official standard; for enrolment to positions on paid terms on the base of contracts of paid educational services – the original of their document of official standard, or their application indicating their consent for enrolment, or copies of that document (in the latter case, an entrant shall present the original to the Admission Commission, and the Admission Commission shall testify those copies).

On the deadline day, the specified documents shall be submitted to the University not later than 06.00 p.m. of the local time on August 20, 2018.

64. Entrants who have submitted the original of their document of official standard (their written consents for enrolment) shall be eligible for enrolment as per Clause 63 of these Rules. Their enrolment shall be performed as per the ranked list until all the determined enrolment positions have been occupied.

65. Enrolment to positions on paid terms on the base of contracts of paid educational services shall be performed after enrolment to positions within the control figures or disregarding the temporal terms of enrolment to positions within the control figures.

66. Enrolment to studies shall be completed not later than the day when the academic year commences. The University shall return documents to those who have not been enrolled.

67. The official orders of enrolment shall be published on the official web site www.asu.edu.ru and on the information board the same day when they have been issued; they shall be accessible for visitors of the official web site within six months upon their publication.

IX. Specific Features of Admitting Foreign Citizens & Individuals without Citizenship

68. Foreign citizens and individuals without a citizenship shall be entitled to obtain a higher education at the expense of budget fundings as per international agreements of the Russian Federation, federal laws, or a quota for education determined by the Government of the Russian Federation for foreign citizens and for individuals without a citizenship (hereinafter referred to as “the quota for foreign citizens’ education”), as well as at the expense of individuals and legal entities on the base of contracts of paid educational services.

69. Admission of foreign citizens within the quota for foreign citizens’ education shall be executed on the ground of letters of referral issued by the federal executive authority that performs functions to develop the state policy and execute legal regulation in the field of education. Enrolment to studies within the quota for foreign citizens’ education shall be executed by a special order (orders) of ASU.

70. Foreign citizens and individuals without a citizenship, who are expatriate countrypeople, shall be entitled to obtain a higher education on equal terms with citizens of the Russian Federation, provided they comply with the requirements stipulated by Clause 17 of the Federal Law of May 24, 1999 at #99-FZ

“About State Policy of Russian Federation towards Country People Residing Abroad” (hereinafter referred to as “Federal Law 99-FZ”).

71. Submitting their documents necessary for admission to studies, a foreign citizen or an individual without a citizenship shall indicate the requisites of their document that identifies their personality, or the requisites of their document that identifies the personality of a foreign citizen or an individual without a citizenship in the Russian Federation as per Clause 10 of the Federal Law of June 25, 2002 at #115-FZ “About Legal Status of Foreign Citizens in Russian Federation” (hereinafter referred to as a “document identifying a foreign citizen’s personality”) in their admission application. A foreign citizen or an individual without a citizenship shall present the original or a copy of their personality identification document, or the original or a copy of their personality and nationality identification document as per Point 1 of Clause 22 of these Rules.

72. Applying for admission to studies as per Clause 17 of Federal Law #99-FZ, an expatriate countryperson shall submit (besides the documents specified in Clause 23 of these Rules) the originals or copies of the documents determined by Point 6 of Clause 17 of Federal Law #99-FZ.

73. Foreign citizens to be admitted on the base of international agreements shall present, besides the documents specified in Clause 22 of these Rules, the documents that confirms their relation to the range of individuals that those international agreements specify.
